In Memoriam

WILLIAM C. NELSON

Born January 18, 1912

Died September 17, 1950

As a student of Peekskill High School, Class of 1930, he is remembered for his enthusiastic contributions to the school in athletics, dramatics, music, class activities, and scholarship.

As a teacher, we remember him for his great talent in directing dramatic productions, his coaching of class day and commencement speakers, his faithfulness and inspiration in the classroom, and his never failing willingness to do more than his share of work.

As a person, we will remember him always as a friend—admired, respected, and loved by us all.

SENIOR COUNCIL

Senior Council: composed of officers elected by the senior class, faculty members who have charge of senior home rooms and two representatives from each senior home room . . . has charge of all senior activities, including Senior Play, Kiddies Day, Senior Prom, Class Day and Commencement. The members of the Council appoint seniors to work on committees for these activities under the sponsorship of a senior advisor. The Council decides the admission charges and the amount of money to be spent in producing them. The smooth functioning of the various class activities can be credited to the faithful work of this group.

JUNIOR COUNCIL

The Junior Council is composed of the Junior Class Officers, who are: President, John Mohlsick; Vice President, William Ellis; Secretary, Marie Colao; Treasurer, Albert Baisley; and two representatives from each of the Junior homerooms. Its work is done under the guidance of Miss Meserve.

The primary duty of the Junior Council is to sponsor the selection of a Senior Class Ring. However, this year the Council went beyond its duty and sponsored the selection of a Peekskill High School Ring. To do this the Junior Council created a joint committee, composed of members from the junior, sophomore and freshmen classes. This joint committee succeeded in selecting a ring which was accepted as a school ring by the entire student body.

The Sophomore Class officers are: President, Vincent Corozine; Vice President, William Buchanan; Secretary, Marie Babey; Treasurer, Beverly Vogel.

The Soda Committee of the Council was appointed to sell soda at all of the Peekskill High School basketball games that are played at home. The Dance Committee of five members was appointed to arrange and run a dance for the class.

Seated: J. Anderson, M. Chalumeau, W. Daly, K. Mooney, A. Volkmann, M. Mohlsick, B. DiNoris. Standing: Mr. Lindsey, W. Griffin, P. Keimig, H. Heineman, W. Buchanan, B. Vogel, N. Corozine, D. Annacone, D. Silva, S. Portizky.

BOOSTER CAMPAIGN

Since our home football games were played at Depew Park, instead of the Peekskill Stadium, some way of raising money to support athletics had to be found. The Booster Campaign was the answer to the problem. Booster buttons, shaped like a football and bearing the words
"Boost Peekskill", were sold for one dollar and admitted any person wearing one to all home games without further charge.

The campaign was a great success. Ninety-four per cent of the student body became "Boosters" and 470 buttons were sold to parents and local citizens, with Home Room 34,
sales competition.

Nineteen seniors of the Washington Club spent four days early last March in a visit to our nation's capital. The group stayed at the Plaza Hotel and went on daily bus tours to various places of interest in and about the city. Mr. Wood accompanied the group and acted as its chaperon.

Before arriving in Washington the group visited the grounds of the Naval Academy at Annapolis and inspected several of the buildings. Later a trip was made to Mount Vernon and to the Arlington Cemetery.

The officers of this year's club were: President, Susanne Mohlsick; Secretary-Treasurer, Dolores Dowd.

The Ushers Guild of Peekskill High School was first organized in September 1935 and has been under the sponsorship of Miss Sarah T. Baker since its beginning.

Girls apply at the end of the junior year and must meet a scholastic requirement to be accepted as members. The Ushers Guild officiates at all school functions. This year they have also served at entertainments given by the Lions Club and the Exchange Club. Officers for 1950-1951 are: Head Usher, Patricia Cunane; Secretary, Terry Kessler.

Hampered by an inability to be consistent throughout the grid campaign, the Red Devils lost their first two games; they came back fighting and when the season ended they were in a three way tie for second place in the HRL.

Although Peekskill lost their first two games, the second of those was really a heart-breaker as the game was taken out of their hands in the final three seconds. The Red Devils came back in the following two weeks with thrilling victories over Pleasantville and Washington Irving.

After two wins, the Red Devils tasted defeat again as they bowed to North Tarrytown and Hastings, but came back fighting again to whip Edison Tech and Ossining. These last two games were broadcast over radio station WLNA.

The Peekskill High School Junior varsity grid squad, under the watchful eye of Mr. Moser, finished the 1950 season with a lot of praise.

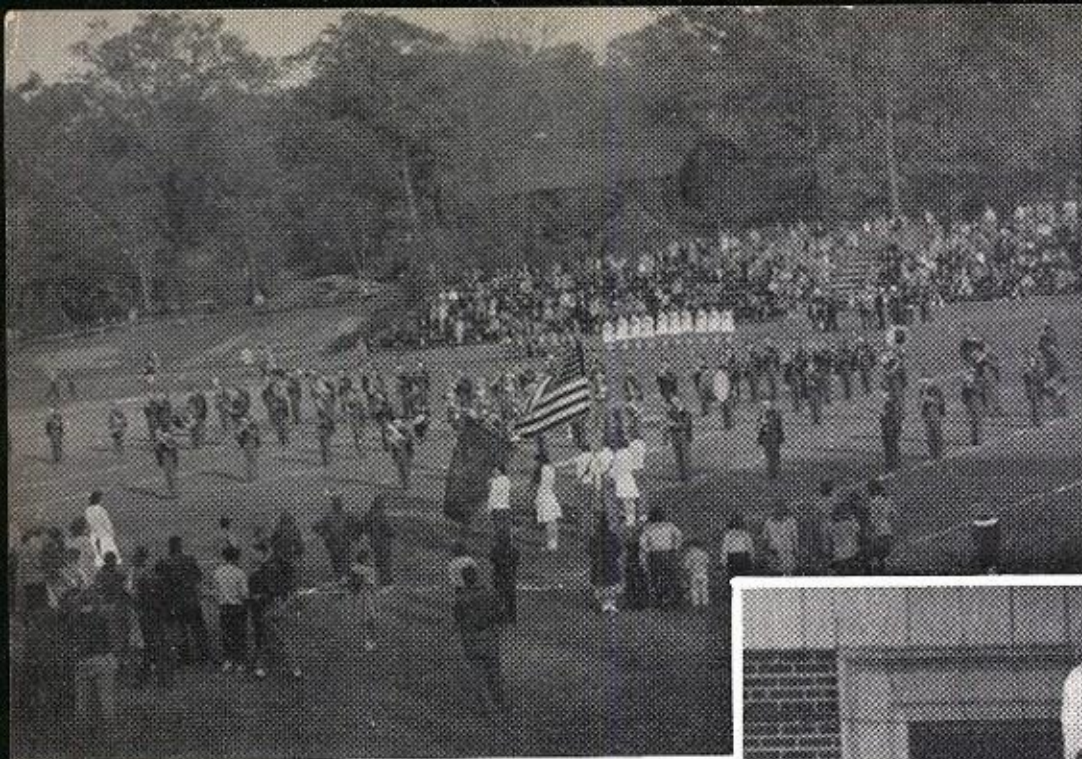

Although the Devils were rapped about by Ossining and North Tarrytown, they never stopped striving until they could give their coaches what they wanted. Though whipped twice during the season, the Devils came out on top with three wins and one tie to their credit.

All the members of the J.V. team were either sophomores or freshmen. This gives the varsity outlook for future years a spot of brightness, for most of the boys will have had some greatly needed experience.

The P.H.S. Band is the liveliest and most colorful group of its kind that ever graced a football field. Its inspired marches have helped win many football games. Its excellent drum-majorette, Nancy Strang, has led the band through numerous parades and games. Miss Strang leads the six twirlers, who, in turn, keep the band well spaced.

The band participates in pep rallies, football games, and assemblies, such as the booster and awards assemblies. A smaller group, called the Pep Band, performs at basketball games.

Mr. Edward Shulman, who is the director, is also the spirit that moves his pupils toward higher goals in the field of music.

We consist of ten people,
All of which are girls,
Some of us have straight hair,
And some of us have curls.

Some of us are kind of thin,
And some are slightly fat,
And each of us will sometimes
Act rather like a cat.

Although we fight and argue,
And sometimes get quite mad,
It's only a matter of minutes
Until again we're glad.

We've learned to hold our tempers,
Not to rave and scream,
And so we stick together
Working as a team!

And right beside us all the time
To help us on to fame,
Our ever loyal adviser—
Miss Snyder is her name.

In the gym you see us—
We practice every night.
You hear us "rah" our fellows
And holler "fight, team, fight!"

At games we jump and dance around
Sometimes we laugh and cry,

STUDENT COUNCIL

The constitution of the Student Council of Peekskill High School was adopted three years ago by the student body. Since then, its members and its committees have really worked to make the student council an organization for the school to be proud of. Among its achievements have been the teenage canteen, the open house, and the raising of a sufficient sum of money to support an Italian orphan.

The council is composed of two elected representatives from each homeroom and four officers elected by the entire school after a week of hectic campaigning. It meets every Monday afternoon in Mr. Graham's room, the eighth period. The council at the beginning of this year immediately formed seven major committees. The committees and their accomplishments are as follows:

The Open House Committee secured the use of the school every Saturday night through petitions to the Board of Education. This committee worked with the Recreation Commission and planned things so well that not a drop of available space in the school was wasted during Open House. There was swimming in the pool, sports in the gym, dancing and refreshments in the cafeteria, ping-pong in the lower halls and games in the first floor rooms.

The Assembly Committee gave P.H.S. a well balanced assembly program for the year. The many assemblies included paid Broadway talent, scientific demonstrations, group singing and short skits put on by the students.

The Student-Faculty Committee fostered better relationships between students and teachers. Some projects of the committee were the revision of the Honor Roll system and the obtaining of an insignia for the Debate Team.

The Dance Committee planned and supervised numerous dances during the year. This committee not only added to the social life of P.H.S., but also showed that successful dances are not a rarity.

The Television Committee obtained a Television Set for the school. This set was used in both Open House and during the school day. Many a student's knowledge of world affairs was broadened by watching the United Nations meetings, and many a sports fan was thrilled by the telecasts of the major league baseball games.

The Constitution Committee offered many suggestions for the betterment of the Student Governmental system, and a plan for the revision of the school treasury.

The Senior Week Committee organized a week of fun and frolic for the Seniors. This was the first year that Senior Week was attempted and the results indicate that a Senior Week will be held in P.H.S. for years to come.

The Council also has been represented at the meetings of the Westchester County Association of Student Councils.

This year's officers are: President, Bernard Yudowitz; Vice-president, Christine Johnson; Secretary, Patricia Buchanan; Treasurer, Carolyn Craig. The advisor of the council is Mr. Graham.

I Speak for Democracy

The Four Winners at Peekskill

On November 10, 1950, the Sectional eliminations of the I Speak for Democracy Contest were held for the second year at P.H.S. This national contest is sponsored by the National Junior Chamber of Commerce. Representatives from thirteen schools in the Peekskill Area participated. From the thirteen speakers, four were chosen as finalists who later spoke over W.L.N.A.

The four were Richard Tasjian of Mahopac, Edward Gorman of North Tarrytown, William Tyler of Washington Irving, and John Graulich of Peekskill. Of these four, John Graulich was chosen as the winning speaker.

A recording of John's speech was made and sent to Buffalo to be entered in the New York State contest. When the champion of New York State was announced, it was, for the second straight year, none other than John Graulich. As a reward for his accomplishment he traveled to Buffalo, received a General Electric Television set, and was guest speaker at a dinner held there.

From Buffalo, John's recording traveled to Washington, D. C., where it was entered in the National contest. The nation was divided into thirteen sections and once again John came out on top in his section and was declared one of the thirteen finalists in the entire United States and its territories.

Thus to Mr. Albert Swank, John's speaking instructor, goes credit for another name on the long list of champions he has coached.

THE SENIOR PLAY

"One of the best senior plays in years"—that was the general comment about this year's play, "Cuckoos on the Hearth". Written by Parker Fennelly of Peekskill and ably directed by Herman C. Baptiste of the faculty, the mystery satire proved a tremendous hit with the full house audience of November 18. The play, which has been produced on Broadway, is a strict departure from the typical boy and girl high school production. Mr. Fennelly, well-known actor of the radio, screen, and television, gave the occasion a Broadway tie-up by appearing at one of the rehearsals.

The play was especially well cast, and we shall never forget Bernard Yudowitz as Zadoc, the eccentric writer; Georgia Voonasis, as the giddy Lulu; Robert Renza as Svengali; Arthur Rudolph as the death-like Reverend; and Ronald Vicenzi as the raving maniac. And what a charming husband and wife Herbert White and Bernadette Shutt made! Remember the rousing cheer Vic Ott got when he appeared in the full uniform of a state trooper? Loretta Kekacs and Shirley Ganeles added a little local color in their respective roles of the telephone repairman's wife and Doctor Gordon. And who can forget the very tough portrayal of Doc Ferris which Tommy Lent gave. Barbara Field with her dramatic monologues between the acts kept the audience in the right mood.

The attractive set was handled by Mr. Kropf and the Stage Crew, consisting of James Brillinger, the manager, Carmen Carisano, James Gibson, Edward Hald, Henry Lounsbury, David Miller, Raymond Ratte, Arthur Simmonds, Robert Straub, and John Walsh.

Seniors who aided in the various committees included Elaine Scalzo, Tickets; Henry Dabbs, Publicity; Mary Lou Cole, Charlene Baxter, Gerry Roberts, and Isabelle Beuchert, Programs; and Mike Nardone, Joseph Vinci, and James Gallagher, Properties.

On December 2, the play was repeated for the benefit of the George Deitz Memorial Fund. Over $200 was raised for this worthy cause. And so ended the myriad activities dealing with the senior play. It involved a lot of work, but there was also a lot of fun . . . and the memory of the joy it gave will linger for many a year.

Peekskill High School's Red Devil tankmen had a moderately successful record during the 1950-51 campaign winning four of nine meets. The Red Devils were outscored on an over-all record for the season by 66 points.

Peekskill suffered some severe beatings during the year but never gave up during any meet. The worst beating was at the hands of our arch-rival, the Cadets of PMA. The Devils' other defeats were to New Rochelle, Mamaroneck, and Nyack twice.

The four Red Devil victories were from A. B. Davis, Yonkers Central, Gorton and Roosevelt. All of these meets were fairly close, but the Devils managed to stay on top.

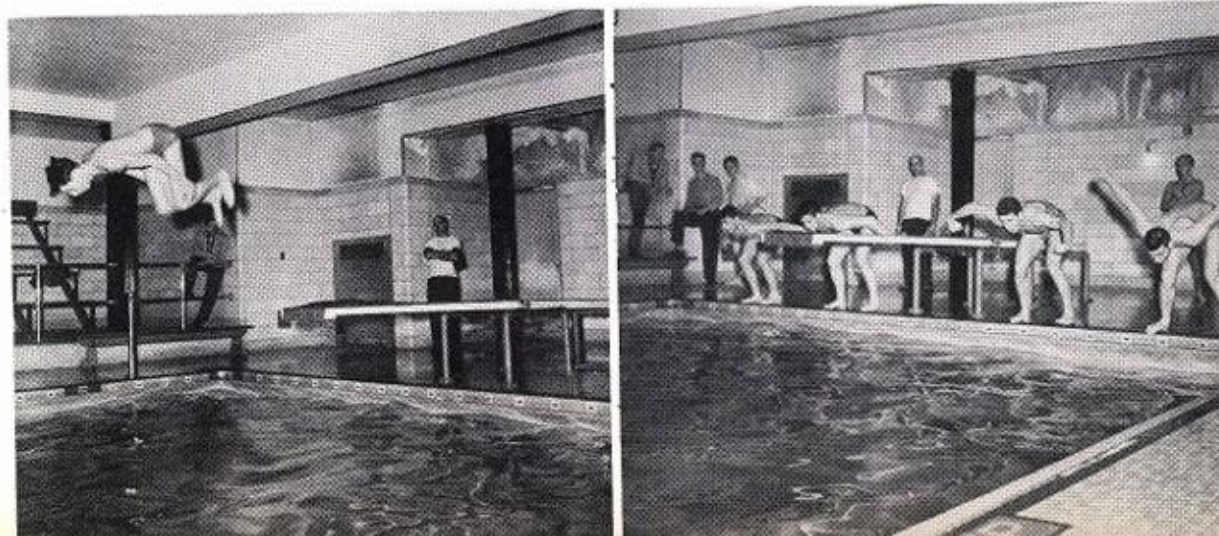

The Red Devils are losing a number of outstanding swimmers this year due to graduation. Among them will be Andy Ianarella, who is the team captain and high point man, Al Tuttle, Charlie Pusey and Neil MacNeil.

THE THOMAS MOHLSICK MEMORIAL PLAQUE

A memorial plaque was presented to Mrs. Peter Mohlsick, mother of the late Thomas Mohlsick, by the Supreme Council of the Knights of Columbus at a meeting of the Peekskill Board of Education on the evening of January 9, 1951, at the Peekskill High School.

Mrs. Mohlsick, in turn, presented the plaque to the president of the Board of Education with the request that it be placed permanently in P. H. S. in memory of Thomas Mohlsick.

Every June, for the next ten years, the name of the school's most outstanding swimmer will be inscribed on the plaque.

The Senior Class held its Prom on January 27. About sixty-five couples attended. The otherwise barren gym was magically transformed into a "Skater's Paradise".

The general chairman was Christine Johnson. The Decoration Committee was headed by Barbara Field, assisted by Charlene Baxter, Mary Lou Cole, Gerry Roberts, Leona Lautman, Jane Ferris, Patricia Cunane, Christine Johnson, Robert Renza, Patricia Buchanan, Charles Portes, Charles E. Volkmann, William Peterson, Thomas Murphy, Bernard Yudowitz, Bucky Finnegan, John Moynahan, Terry Kessler, Muriel Ascheim. The Ticket Committee Chairman was Patricia Buchanan, and her assistants were Shirley Ganeles, John Moynahan, Terry Kessler, Marilyn Rapping, Georgia Voonasis, Muriel Ascheim. The Refreshments Committee was composed of Terry Thornell, Julianna Stilenovich, Loretta Kekacs, William Peterson and Charles Volkmann were co-chairmen of the Orchestra Committee.

The entrance to the gym was cardboard skates painted in silver and black. As the couples walked over a bridge into the ballroom, they made wishes near a "Wishing Well". The romantic scene was made even more so when Larry Burns played swaying waltzes and lively fox-trots. The receiving line consisted of the class officers and the class sponsors. During the evening, refreshments were enjoyed by all.

The Latin Club, sponsored by Miss Graninger, meets bi-monthly to provide the students with an opportunity to learn more about the various phases of the Latin life and language.

The students planned many interesting programs for their meetings and included in some of these programs guest speakers and film strips. During American Education Week, this organization presented a Latin exhibit in the library and the second floor corridor. As part of their social activities, the Latin Club held a Christmas and a Valentine party.

The officers for this year were Phyllis Sanders, Barbara Morse, and Jane Marie Meyers, Consuls; Alvira Volkmann, Quaestor; Rae Schragis, Scriba; Dolores Gambino, Marilyn Poritzky, and Mary Chalumeau, Aediles.

ITALIAN CLUB

The Italian Club is formed each year with the idea of providing its members with interesting social projects. The members raise funds for the club by selling candy at the home basketball games and by holding cake sales. The money obtained from these various sources enables the members to visit New York City to view an Italian motion picture.

Meetings of the club this year took place every second Wednesday of the month with President Ralph Pelaia presiding. Various topics were discussed and occasionally the club had a guest to talk to the members.

This club encourages students of the Italian language to become more familiar with the ways and language of this great and ancient nation.

Baby Sitters Club is a group of girls who are interested in minding children.

All members are requested to secure a doctor's certificate assuring good health. A character reference is also needed for membership.

The girls are trained in the effective and safe essentials of baby-sitting by their advisor, Mrs. Hourihan.

It is the aim of the club to find as many jobs for the members as possible, at fair wages and hours.

Roberta Fullenweider is president, Marilyn Mohlsick is secretary, and Elizabeth Hayes is treasurer.

SPEECH CLUB

Front: C. Affron, J. Carter, H. Heineman, J. Graulich, V. Tiso, W. Amory. Standing: J. Marer, J. Kesselman, B. Yudowitz, E. Markham, Miss Holmes, R. Fullenweider, A. Dinnerstein, S. Citron, D. Silver, R. Eisenberg.

Speech Club, under the direction of Miss Holmes, meets every Thursday evening. Unique readings, interpretations and discussions are the highlights of these gatherings. They all center around the main purpose of Speech Club which is to improve individual speech, so that its members may be fully prepared to serve the school and community.

Various fund raising activities of Speech Club include a series of successful cake sales, and the sponsoring of movies.

Club officers are: President, John Graulich; Vice-President, William Amory; Secretary, Virginia Tiso; Treasurer, Harry Heineman; Attendance-taker, Jacqueline Carter.

Perhaps the old phrase "Experience is the best teacher" best fits the Red Devil cage squad of 1950-51. Peekskill's quintet started playing together as sophomores on the J. V. team. In their junior year they were together on the varsity squad but finished poorly that year with four wins and fourteen defeats.

This past year the experience gained during the previous two years put the Devils in the thick of the Hudson River League basketball race. Although Peekskill faltered during the second round, they still finished in second place, with five wins and three defeats.

Besides the league games, the Red Devils clashed with our old rivals Hendrick Hudson, Arlington, Newburgh, and two newcomers to our schedule, Burlington and Rutland, Vermont. The two games with the Vermont schools were played during our Christmas vacation on the Vermonters' court.

Peekskill High School's over-all record was eleven wins and seven defeats. The Devils whipped Henhud and Arlington twice, Newburgh and Burlington once, plus five H. R. L. victories. The most thrilling Red Devil victory of the campaign was gained at North Tarrytown when Bucky Finnegan sank a pair of free tosses to win the game after regulation time had run out.

BASKETBALL SCHEDULE 1950 - 1951 JUNIOR VARSITY

Peekskill High School's junior varsity basketball squad finished the season with a record of five wins and eleven defeats for 1950-51. Although they lost eleven games the Devils gained lots of experience and developed their basketball ability a great deal.

The Red Devils' five victories came over Arlington, Ossining, North Tarrytown and Washington Irving twice. They dropped very close games to Newburgh, Arlington, Ossining and two to the Sailors of HenHud.

Mainstays on the Red Devil cage squad were George Smith, Nat Ziolkowski, Charlie Badger, Gene Lois, Mike Bottas, Bubby Shaw and Ralph Pelaia.

The Varsity Club was organized to promote better school spirit among the letter men of the school. Membership in this club is open to all boys who have won varsity letters.

During the year, under the supervision of Mr. Lindsey, the club sponsored the Fall "get acquainted" dance, the Father and Son banquet, the Sports Frolic and the annual picnic.

SPORTS FROLIC

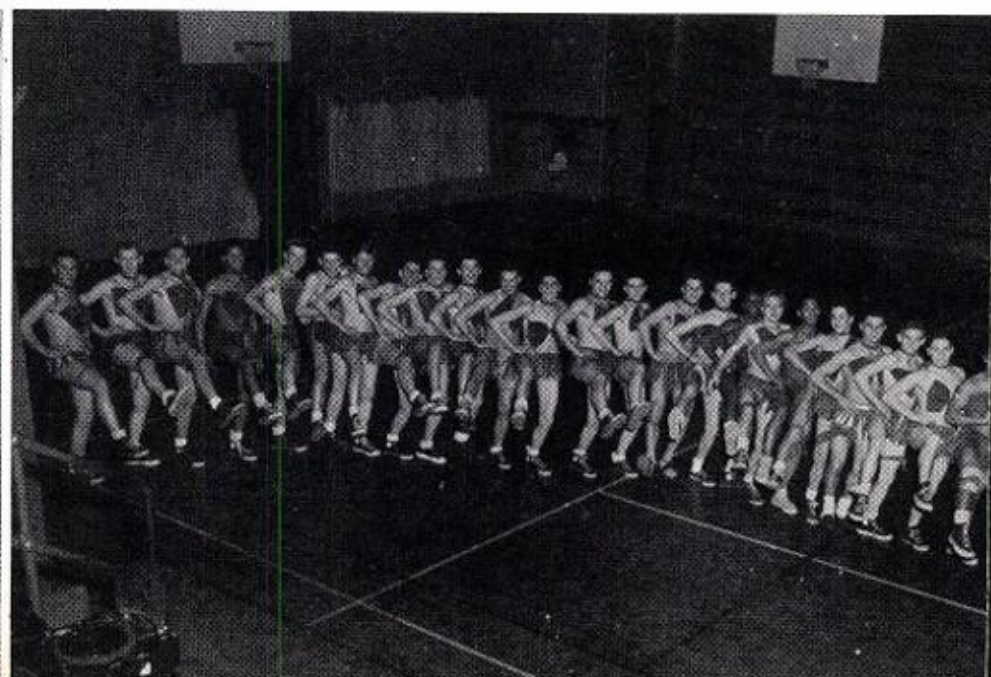

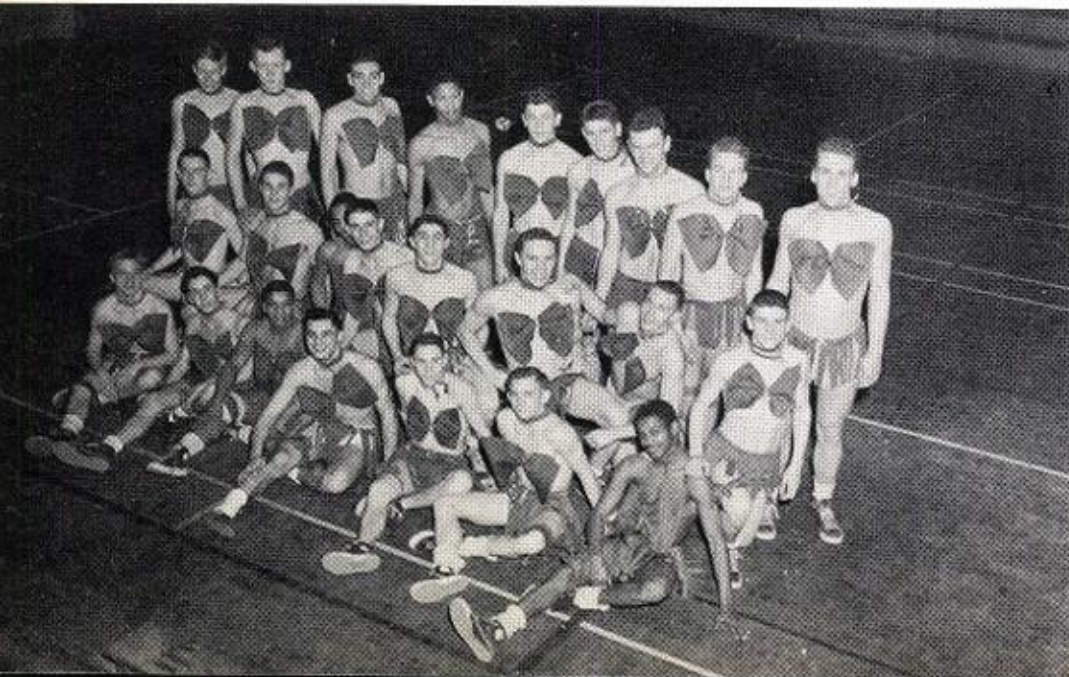

Over four hundred students and parents witnessed the sixth annual Sports Frolic sponsored by the Varsity Club. Everyone enjoyed the Crimson Blue "Rockettes" featuring 24 of our letter men in high stepping dance routines.

As usual, the evening was highlighted by the antics of the faculty members in their original skit of "The Rajah and His Sheiks of Araby".

Other events featured the Varsity Club Cheerleaders (as only they know how to lead them), tumbling, a hockey game between the boys and the girl cheerleaders, and a novelty basketball game between the faculty and the Varsity Club.

Letters were presented to members of the swimming and basketball teams. Dancing followed the festivities. The Varsity Club is under the guidance of Mr. Lindsey.

HISTORY CLUB

Front: T. Stapf, C. Craig, J. Graulich, R. DeRosso, H. Cozzi, M. Volkmann, S. Harrington, G. Bertoline, J. Stoke, A. M. Van Cura. 2nd row: M. Duncan, N. Cuomo, M. Williams, M. Colao, J. Marer, B. Morse, J. Carter, L. Hauck, B. Hadden, S. Burns, E. Eisner, G. Branigan, A. Williams. 3rd row: R. Irish, R. Ferguson, B. Gordon, P. Scheiber, J. Mitchell, A. Kempf, D. Colao, N. Vail, J. Lent, D. Dorsey, J. Kelly, R. Pulice, M. Dillon, P. Littell, E. Sterns. 4th row: A. Dinerstein, K. Bell, A. Simmonds, E. Lee, K. Pataki, R. O'Donnell, R. Pelaia, J. King, G. Emeny, M. Kennedy, N. Ziolkowski. 5th row: P. Ventry, C. Affron, H. Broadie, A. Fallick, Mr. Gallagher, Miss Stidworthy, Mr. Miller, E. Hald, G. Boyce, A. Tompkins, A. Korn, W. Ellis, H. Heineman, P. Keimig.

The purpose of the History Club is to promote student interest in history by having historical movies, guest speakers, panel discussions with student speakers, and by taking trips to places of historical interest.

The officers of the History Club are: President,

Hugo Cozzi; Vice-President, Madlyn Volkmann; Secretary, Ruth De Rosso; and Treasurer, Shirley Harrington.

The faculty sponsors are Miss Stidworthy, Mr. Miller, and Mr. Gallagher.

S. S. A.

Seated: B. Shutt, P. Buchanan, S. Ganeles, R. Schragis, V. Odell, B. Field, S. Mohlsick, P. Cunane. Standing: R. DeRosso, T. Kessler, C. Johnson, N. Tomassio, M. Babey, T. DeBroske, Mrs. Odell, L. Bunch, A. Casparian, J. Acker, E. Pisani.

The promotion of school spirit and greater interest in school affairs is the purpose of S. S. A. Its members are voted in by a majority vote of their classmates. This club, under the guidance of Mrs. Odell, showed their interest this year by selling pencils with basketball schedules on them, and also by selling banners. The group helped to raise money for the booster campaign, sponsored a dance, and held initiations and parties. Each year a gift, purchased with the money obtained during the school year, is presented to the school. Last year's group purchased an American Flag which was presented to the school this year.

The officers are: President, Bernadette Shutt; Vice-President, Pat Buchanan; Secretary, Pat Cunane; and Treasurer, Sue Mohlsick.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The most significant honor attainable in Peekskill High School is election to membership in the Peekskill Chapter of the National Honor Society. Only those students who are superior in scholarship, who are outstanding in leadership and service, and who possess the finest qualities of character are selected by the faculty as being worthy of this honor.

Our school chapter is sponsored by Mr. Roger Williams, principal, and advised by Miss Cora I. Meserve. The society's officers are: President, Nancy Foshay; Vice-President, Herbert White; Secretary, James Brillinger.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

Front: J. Kesselman, J. Marer, M. Colao, H. White, J. M. Meyer, G. Branigan. 2nd row: S. Fisch, R. Friedman, E. Markham, V. Tiso, D. Bensky, R. Lloyd, D. Lockwood, A.

Bartok, J. Graulich, Mr. Swank. Last row: B. Yudowitz, P. Boddie, S. Citron, J. Andersen, C. Affron, L. Schaefer, N. Eusepi.

The Peekskill Chapter of the National Forensic League, under the direction of Mr. Swank, is an organization existing for the promotion of interscholastic competition in public speaking. Each year, Peekskill participates in several debates and oratorical contests. The year is climaxed by the New York State Tournament at which the champions in debate and the various oratorical fields are decided.

In order to participate in these contests, traveling expenses have to be met. The Di Rubbo School of Dance, in May, staged a benefit performance in the P. H. S. auditorium, in order to raise funds for the 1950-1951 debate team.

At midseason this year, the varsity debate team had won nineteen debates and lost only five.

The officers of the local chapter are: President, Herbert White; Vice-President, Marie Colao; Secretary, Jessica Marer; Treasurer, Bernard Yudowitz.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Quill and Scroll is an honor society providing recognition to those who have made superior accomplishments in the field of high school journalism. International in scope, the organization has chapters in over thirty-five hundred schools all over the world. Peekskill High School's Chapter is made up of three Seniors and two Juniors.

THE STAGE CRAFT CLUB

Front row: E. Schnapp, H. Lounsbury, A. Simmons, Mr. Kropf, E. Silva, B. Harten. 2nd row: J. Brillinger, R. Straub, H. Travis, C. Cartisano, E. Hald.

The Stage Craft Club is a purely voluntary organization open to students who have a working knowledge of simple carpentry, electrical work, and art. It is their job to assemble scenery, make repairs, and construct properties and lighting effects. Many hours are spent after school and during week-ends getting scenery and sets ready for plays. One member is selected as Stage Manager and this year it has been James Brillinger. For their service the members receive an emblem from the school which has a spot light insignia and the letters P.H.S. The Crew is under the expert supervision of Mr. Kropf.

CAFETERIA CLUB AND HELPERS

Front: J. Birdsall, T. Lent, J. Prout, Ida M. Hatchett, A. Bartok, Viola Smith, J. Robinson, Pearl Puryear. Back: W. Huffcut, V. C. Charles Dunham, Sampson Hatchett, D. Miller.

CAFETERIA CLUB

The Cafeteria Club is directed by Mrs. Needleman. The main purpose of the club is to supply Peekskill students with good, well-balanced meals for a minimum price.

APRIL - MAY - JUNE

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

Miss Dorothy E. Graninger

For the past thirty-five years Peekskill students have been fortunate in having the services and guidance of Miss Graninger—one of the finest teachers that we have ever known.

This June she is retiring from active service. But although she is leaving as a teacher, her high standards and just policies will remain with us and will continue to influence us in the future as they have guided us in the past.

Miss Graninger, we'll always love and admire you. For all you have done we can only say "Thank you" with all our hearts.

FOURTH ESTATE

Seated: R. Eisenberg, J. Kesselman, J. Marer, C. Naylor, B. Yudowitz, V. Ott, W. Amory, R. Schragis, R. Friedman. 1st row: D. Bensky, J. Carter, R. Weiss, M. Chalumeau, L. Ganeles, E. Sterns, R. Werner, S. Fisch, C. Dingee, D. Lockwood, J. M. Meyer, R. Lubin, M. Luksin. Last row: D. Loshin, C. Affron, H. Heineman, S. Citron, J. Anderson, N. Euseppi, P. Ventry.

The Fourth Estate is composed of those students who are interested in the field of journalism. The main function of the Estate is to promote journalistic activities in the school and plan social functions which will add a light touch to the tedious work involved in student journalism.

Every year a select group is chosen from the Fourth Estate to put out the Mercury—The P.H.S. newspaper. Last fall, Mr. Gallagher, who had been advising this group for three years, was forced for reasons of health to give up newspaper work. Mr. Williams took over the duties for the rest of the year. Besides the usual mimeographed issues, the "Mercury" Staff also published a sixteen page printed Christmas issue which was well received by the students and faculty of P.H.S.

DRAMATICS CLUB

J. Marer, J. Kesselman, L. Ganeles, C. Dingee, N. Eusepi. 4th row: M. Squires, C. Baxter, S. Citron, J. Anderson, P. Scheiber, H. Cozzi, B. Gordon, P. Schnell, W. Amory, M. Luksin, R. Friedman, R. Lubin. Back: F. Manthey, E. Scalzo, E. Travis, Mr. Baptiste, M. Chalumeau, L. Lautman, M. Campbell, P. Ventry.

The Dramatics Club was organized this year under the leadership of its new adviser, Mr. Baptiste. The club again proved a magnet for a large number of students who are interested in the theater and in show business.

For its spring production the club produced an all-star revue entitled "April in New York". A musical and dramatic tour of the big city, the show served as an appropriate showcase for the best talent of the school. There were many colorful, musical production numbers, such as Forty-second Street, At the Club Versailles, and The Lullaby of Broadway. Scenes from great plays and other specialties rounded out the program. We shouldn't forget Monster Rally which was a hit. "April in New York" was just the vehicle for a balmy spring evening.

The officers for the year were: President, Marcia Williams; Vice-President, Eileen Sterns; Secretary, Armenoosh Casparian; Treasurer, Marie Colao.

On May 29, 1951 the P. H. S. Debate Club presented the Di Rubbo Folies of 1951. The picture shows one of the scenes in a Dutch garden.

CONCERT ORCHESTRA

Front: H. Cozzi, B. Gordon, N. Foshay, J. Radskin, A. Korn, E. Scalzo, D. Rushforth.
Next: J. Carter, R. Lloyd, R. Varella, J. Albert, P. Scheiber, C. Affron, N. Lampert, J. Dresser, A. Kempf, P. Wortham, C. Fuller, B. Wilcox, J. M. Meyer.
3rd: Mr. Konnerth, B. Gordineer, L. Ganeles, L. Baisley, J. Graulich, D. Bensky, R. Weiss, E. Bennett, A. Franchi, J. Weaver, P. Schnell, S. Wells, V. Odell, E. Conklin.

4th: D. Ciochi, P. Pappas, D. Loshin, R. Fullenweider, J. Calabrese, C. Fullenweider, R. Renza, V. Corozine, A. Baisley, W. Buchanan, B. Yudowitz, T. Stapf, R. Scalzo, E. Sterns, W. Ellis.
Last: R. Adams, C. Craig, M. L. Donly.

The Peekskill High School Concert Orchestra, under the baton of Mr. Frank J. Konnerth, is one of the largest instrumental organizations in the school. It meets twice a week during class periods and once a week during the eighth period. The group rehearses and plays music of the world's finest composers. This year the Orchestra has continued to maintain the fine standard set in preceding years.

The activities of this musical group were numerous this year. It took part in the Joint Concert in February and the annual Music Festival in May, it supplied music for dramatic productions and special assemblies, and it ushered in the Senior Class with "Pomp and Circumstance" at the Commencement exercises.

As an extra social activity, the Orchestra goes on its annual outing in June.

INSTRUMENTAL ENSEMBLE

Seated: J. Carter, R. Lloyd, B. Gordon, H. Cozzi, H. Scheiber. Standing: R. Schreuer, Mr. Konnerth, V. Corozine, R. Fullenweider, S. Wells, E. Sterns, N. Foshay, J. Weaver, J. Radskin, D. Rushforth, E. Scalzo.

The Instrumental Ensemble is the honor society of Peekskill High School musicians. This privileged group is made up of first seat instrumentalists, and often plays for local service clubs and community projects. They rehearse twice a week, once after school, and play for their own enjoyment. This organization is very highly thought of among the music groups of Peekskill High School.

CONCERT BAND

Front row: A. Korn, A. Kempf, J. M. Meyer, C. Fuller, E. Scalzo, D. Rushforth, P. Wortham, V. Corozine, R. Renza, C. Fullenweider, J. Calabrese, B. Yudowitz. 2nd row: J. Dresser, J. Richmond, M. Dale, D. A. Conley, N. Lampert, C. Affron, J. Weaver, G. Emeny, E. Bennett, A. Franchi, W. Buchanan, A. Baisley. 3rd row: D. Silver, E. Conklin, R. Adams, G. Smith, J. Mohlsick, V. Odell, R. Scalzo, J. Albert, P. Schnell, C. Williams, T. Stapf, S. Wells, E. Sterns. 4th row: C. Hunt, R. Ganeles, A. Krug, H. Casparian, H. Heine- man, W. Ellis, J. Brillinger. Last row: E. Jackson, W. Griffin, C. Craig, D. Ciochi, M. L. Donly.

The Concert Band consists of those members of the Marching Band who are interested and have sufficient time to meet during the 8th period to learn the types of music suitable for presentation at a formal concert. Many students become familiar with the real thrill of actually playing difficult and impressive music and develop a taste which lasts into adult life. The group takes part in the annual Music Festival and the evening program presented by the instrumental music classes. The Band is under the direction of Mr. Shulman.

DANCE BAND

Front: D. Ciochi, H. Dabbs, V. Corozine, R. Renza, C. Fullenweider. Standing: R. Schreuer, W. Ellis, C. Williams, P. Schnell, R. Fullenweider. Seated at piano: A. Williams, D. Spottswood.

A group of students who help to pep up the school with their swing-and-sway is the Peekskill High Dance Band. The band is composed of members who enjoy playing popular music. They participate in special school programs, school assemblies and the Spring Festival. Meetings are once a week under the supervision of Mr. Konnerth.

The Pep Band, consisting of those students who want to play at the basketball games, is under the direction of Mr. Shulman. For many years they have played at home games and have provided a lively touch to the tenseness that is prevalent in all these contests. The "P" formation directed in strict rhythm by the colorguard, twirlers and cheerleaders during half time makes this year's Pep Band an especially colorful organization.

GIRLS' CHORUS

D. Gambino, J. Thompson, R. Busch, C. Palmer, B. LeGrand, J. Jensen, L. Squillante, J. LaCavera, L. Sacco, E. Moseley, S. Wells. 3rd row: L. Cole, F. Tapp, D. Spottswood, E. Sorano, J. McCoy, E. Krabichler, P. Delamater, J. Marer, J. Kelly, J. Acker, R. DeRosso, M. Sciria, B. Puff, M. Wilson, M. Decker, B. Eberle, P. Buchanan, L. Bunch, S. Burns, M. L. Donly, L. Hauck, B. Hadden, J. Dresser, V. Odell.

The Girls' Chorus directed by Mr. H. Robert Enright trains a large number of girls for more advanced choral groups. These girls meet twice a week during the regular class periods. They sing a great variety of musical selections which are always a treat to their audiences. These girls, with their colorful costumes and songs, are an important addition to the May Music Festival.

CHORALAIRES

H. Towers, E. Scalzo, V. Kear, N. Foshay, P. Buchanan, S. Wells, D. L. Pullen, P. Wortham.

Under the direction of Mr. H. Robert Enright, the Choralaires practice once a week for their various programs at school and community functions. The girls, especially selected for voice and feeling for music, always make a charming appearance. The three sopranos, three second sopranos, and three altos blend in beautiful harmony and present each selection in their own interesting way. The type of music that they sing varies as does the color of their gowns.

This year the girls performed before the Peekskill Chapter of the D. A. R., and took part in the Joint Concert in February, the Christmas program for the Rotary Club, and the annual Music Festival in May. Whatever the occasion, the Choralaires always render a fine presentation of good music.

MIXED CHORUS

Front row: N. Foshay, L. Schaefer, V. Kear, J. Bass, E. Scalzo, O. Gallucci, M. Pelaia, T. DeBroske, R. Scalo, T. Stapf, B. Wilcox, E. Pisani, G. Bertoline, J. Valentine, J. Gaulich, R. Renza. 2nd row: L. A. Rinaldi, M. Chalumeau, A. Van Cura, E. Scarcia, E. Krabich-er, M. Frye, W. Daly, J. Crawford, F. Vecchio, J. Schablein, J. Jensen, M. Babey, B. Vogel, W. Buchanan, C. Williams, M. Dale, H. Casparian. 3rd row: C. Palmer, B. LeGrand, E. Travis, L. Di-

The Mixed Chorus, the largest singing group in P. H. S., is directed by Mr. H. Robert Enright. Due to the large number of members, it was necessary to hold rehearsals in the auditorium this year. Every student with a creditable singing voice is eligible for membership in this organization. The chorus sang a variety of musical selections, including old favorites and Broadway hit tunes, and proved itself capable of presenting fine vocal music.

A CAPELLA

Front: B. Hadden, J. Kilmer, J. Thompson, J. Carter, J. Weaver, J. Dresser. Girls Standing: M. Babey, P. Buchanan, N. Foshay, D. L. Pullen, E. Scalzo, H. Towers, S. Wells, V. Kear, P. Wortham, R. Fullenweider. Rear: Mr. Enright, J. Albert, L. Kaplan, K. Pataki, H. Heineman, H. Casparian, C. Williams.

One of the more popular musical groups in P. H. S., the A Cappella is directed by Mr. H. Robert Enright. Wearing their choral robes, the members always make a dignified appearance at their various concerts. The group sings without accompaniment and its music is of many types.

To become a member of this organization, a student must have a pleasing voice and must be able to pass a short vocal test. Because there is a limit to the number of members, there is usually competition for membership.

The A Cappella was extremely active this year. It sang for the Rotary Club, the Peekskill Hospital and Franklin Street School, caroled in the halls of P. H. S. at Christmas time, and participated in the Joint Concert in February, in singing assemblies and in the May Music Festival.

MIXED CHORUS

Front row: H. Cozzi, V. Corozine, R. Fisch, J. Calabrese, P. Littell, J. Carter, J. Porter, J. Meyer, D. L. Pullen, D. Rushforth, Mr. Enright. 2nd row: A. O'Connell, H. Heineman, R. Lubin, M. Campbell, J. Acker, M. Tinsley, D. Gambino, J. Thompson, F. Kleinbaum,

C. Sacco, J. Weaver, M. Decker, S. Wells, V. Odell. Last row: L. Kaplan, J. Albert, C. Vogel, L. Bunch, L. Squillante, J. LaCavera, E. Moseley, M. Wilson, P. Wortham, M. Polis, B. Eberle, R. Fullenweider, M. L. Donly, E. Hadden, J. Dresser.

The performances of the Mixed Chorus, though not as numerous as some other vocal groups, showed the hard work of director and members alike. It sang in the Joint Concert in February and, as its last activity of the year, participated in the May Music Festival.

GIRLS' STUDENT LEAGUE

chert, J. Brown, P. Wortham, R. Fullenweider, Miss Baker. Fourth row: H. DeMaria, B. Wilcox, M. Peck, M. Pelaia, S. Elroy, A. Corrillo, P. Delamater, R. Fisch. Fifth row: J. Bannister, V. Houskeeper, C. Monowitz, R. Schragis, J. Meyer, M. Williams, M. Ascheim, J. Schnapp, B. Hadden.

The Girls' Student League, first organized in the Spring of 1938, is sponsored by Miss Baker and concerns itself with the interests of the girls in the school. Though all the girls are members, only two representatives are elected from each homeroom to attend the meetings. These girls report back to the homeroom the current projects being discussed.

Three major projects of the year were the Big Sister Party, picture taking, and the Vocational Conference. The Big Sister Party is to acquaint the sophomore girls with the older members of the school.

Girls' Student League sponsors the photographing of students whose pictures are then sold and used for school records. The Vocational Conference is for all the students, that they may learn about the opportunities their future careers have to offer. Speakers come from many vocations such as nursing, teaching, Army, Navy, fashion modeling, etc.

The officers of the league are: Donna Lee Pullen, president; Bernadette Shutt, vice-president; Sue Mohlsick, secretary; Dolores Gambino, treasurer.

VARSITY BASEBALL

1st row: H. Broadie, N. Lepore, R. Cobe, J. Martin, M. Nardone, Mr. Le Boeuf. 2nd row: T. Murphy, A. Piamenti, T. Lent, V. Zeoli, E. Burns, R. Pelaia, S. Agosta, C. Volkmann. Standing: J. Kiss-

linger, V. Ott, R. Waldbillig, J. Strang, R. DeRonda, J. Hickey, R. Finnegan.

For the first time in several years a new coach appeared on the diamond in 1950 for the Red Devils. He is Mr. Le Boeuf, our physics teacher. Mr. Le Boeuf replaced Mr. Devins, who had been coach since the end of the war.

The team finished the season with nine wins, six defeats and one tie. The most thrilling of the nine victories was the 5-4 triumph over the Authors of W.I. at Tarrytown. While a steady rain came down, the Devils came from behind to pull the game out of the fire as Mike Naardone clouted a home run and Oscar Johannes slammed a rousing triple over the center fielder's head to clinch the victory.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL

Front row: N. Lepore, J. King, C. McCormack, P. Jones, C. Turner, R. Shaw, N. Ziolkowski, G. Smith, J. Boyce, W. Buchanan. 2nd row: Mr. Moser, F. Bonniello, M. Obrentz, V. Corozine, M. Scaramellino, K. Bell, J. Travis, G. Adams.

Peekskill High School's 1950 J.V. baseball squad had a fair record. They ended the season with six wins, three defeats and one tie. The Junior Varsity also had a new coach in Mr. Moser, a former varsity shortstop at Gettysburg College.

The lone tie game for the Devils was played against Ossining High with a score of 1-1. Peekskill's other games were played against St. Joseph's Home, Hendrick Hudson, North Tarrytown and P.M.A.

Most of the players on the Junior Varsity were freshmen and sophomores. This gives these players more experience for future varsity competition.

TRACK TEAM

Front row: H. Moseley, G. Green, H. Dabbs, J. Wilson, S. Gelzer, J. Brillinger, R. Fullenweider. 2nd row: R. Smith, C. Fullenweider, W. Corney, W. Peterson, B. Moynahan, L. Smith, W. Garrett, M.

Bell. 3rd row: Mr. Peterson, T. Tinsley, J. Aikens, W. Hayes, D. Williams, W. Gesson, H. White, C. Badger, A. Warren, F. Garzione, O. Peterson, J. Vinci.

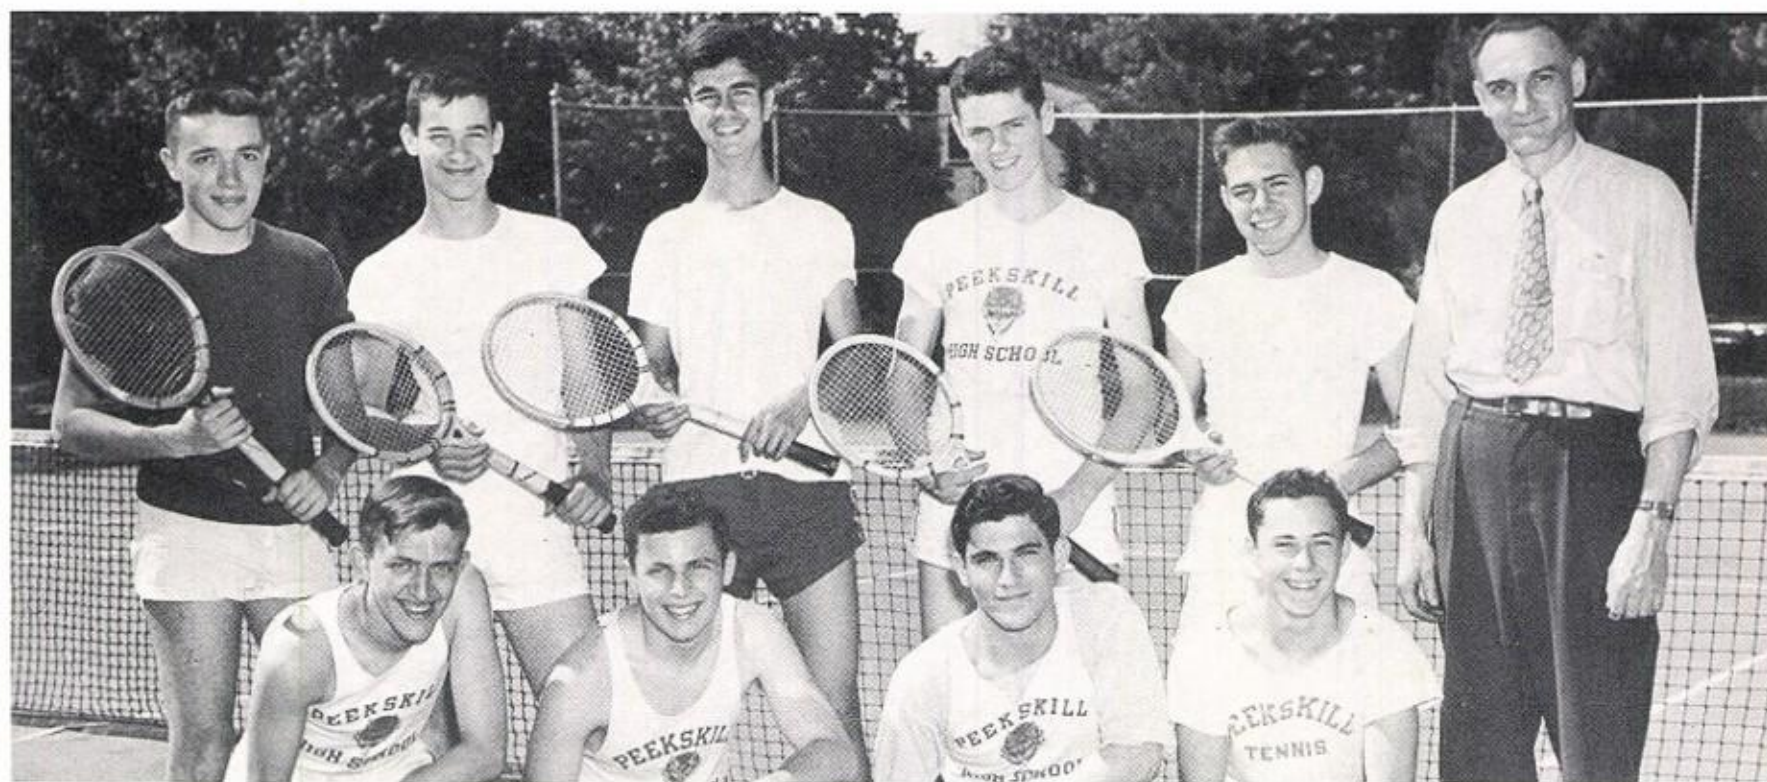

The 1950 track team wound up their campaign fairly well, with four wins and two defeats. They also placed second in the annual Hudson River League meet at Depew Park and third in the county sectionals at White Plains.

The Red Devils were not too strong in the sprinter's division, but came through especially well in the distance department. Bart Moynahan broke the Hudson River League half-mile record with a time of two minutes, one and five-tenths seconds. Ray Smith also took a first place for the Red Devils in the quarter-mile. Jim Brillinger starred in the pole vault for Peekskill and placed second in the HRL.

Other outstanding performers on the track team were Tiny Fullenweider, Vic Richardson, Henry Dabbs, Bill Peterson, Neil Snowden, Tom Garrett and Billy Garrett.

TENNIS TEAM

Front: P. Gardineer, M. Schneps, E. Weinger, R. Ganeles. Standing: W. Kessler, W. Huffcut, S. Poritzky, J. Moynahan, A. Markoff, Mr. Buckton.

The Red Devil netmen can be proud of their record for 1950 because they were the only P.H.S. team to take a HRL crown. The netmen finished with a 9 win-to-1 loss record for the campaign and a 6 and 0 record in the league.

Peekskill won over all its league opponents: Hastings, North Tarrytown and Ossining, plus two wins over the Sailors from Henuh and one over Croton. The only loss suffered was to Peekskill Military Academy.

Mr. Buckton was so well pleased with his team that he gave out letters to all those who took part in the matches. The outstanding players were Gene Weinger, Norty Schneps, Bill Kessler, Johnny Moynahan, Ronnie Ganeles, Al Markoff, and Pete Gardineer.
